

BEFORE THE METRO COUNCIL

FOR THE PURPOSE OF RENAMING)	RESOLUTION No. 00-2975
THE SMITH AND BYBEE LAKES) INTERLAKES TRAIL TO THE)
JEAN WASHINGTON)	Introduced by Presiding Officer
INTERLAKES TRAIL)	Bragdon, Councilor Atherton,
)	Councilor Kvistad, Councilor
)	McLain, Councilor Monroe and
)	Councilor Park

WHEREAS, the Smith and Bybee Interlakes Trail meanders from N. Marine Dr. down the peninsula between the two lakes and provides viewing opportunities of birds, wildlife and the flora around the lakes.

WHEREAS, Councilor Washington spent much of his childhood exploring the wilds of north and northeast Portland learning the importance of access to nature; and

WHEREAS, Councilor Washington spent much of his young adulthood appreciating the living treasures that he had grown to love; and

WHEREAS, Councilor Washington has spent the past 9 years in public service protecting the natural sanctuaries for surrounding neighborhoods and assuring future generations access to nature; and

WHEREAS, Councilor Washington devoted his time to the passage of the 1995 Open Spaces, Parks and Streams Bond Measure; and

WHEREAS, As Metro Operations/Regional Facilities Chair in 1995, 1996, and 1999, Councilor Washington presided over the acquisition of 2,592 open space acres; and

WHEREAS, During 1995 and 1996, Councilor Washington was directly responsible for the approval of 22 acquisition refinement plans of the Open Spaces program; and

WHEREAS, Councilor Washington shared his passion for open spaces with his late wife Jean, who dedicated herself as a "teacher of life", bringing the sounds of nature into the lives of children and adults alike, now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED,

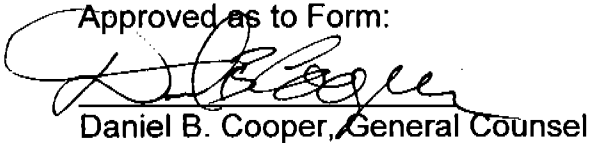

That the Metro Council hereby changes the Interlakes Trail at Smith and Bybee Lakes Wildlife Area to the Jean Washington Interlakes Trail.

ADOPTED by the Metro Council this 10th day of August, 2000.

David Bragdon, Presiding Officer

Approved as to Form:

Daniel B. Cooper, General Counsel

