MEETING: METROPOLITAN MOBILITY WORKSHOP

DATE: Monday, April 30, 2007

TIME: 1:00-4:00 PM

PLACE: Council Chambers, Metro Regional Center

Objectives:

- Enhance coordination and collaboration between Metro, ODOT, TriMet and local agency partners.
- Discuss the state and freight mobility functions and economic significance of specific regional mobility corridors, and complementary functions of different transportation modes and facilities in providing statewide and regional mobility.
- Identify a general set of capacity assumptions and strategies for the mobility corridors to frame the RTP.
- Produce a framework that local agency coordinating committees can use to identify complementary community building investments as part of the RTP Solicitation Process.

1:00	Welcome & Workshop Purpose Metro, ODOT and TriMet are co-sponsoring the mobility workshop as the next step in framing state and regional mobility issues for the 2035 Regional Transportation Plan.	Robin McArthur, Metro
1:05	Mobility in the 2035 Regional Transportation Plan Metro will provide a brief overview of how mobility policy has evolved in recent updates to the RTP, the pressures that rapid growth and declining revenue are placing on our ability to provide mobility, and the new mobility framework developed for the current RTP update.	Tom Kloster, Metro
1:20	Set the Stage for the Mobility Exercise Metro, ODOT and TriMet will set the stage for the small group mobility exercise. A brief overview of the recent MPAC, JPACT and Regional Freight Task Force mobility workshops, the Oregon Transportation Plan Major Investment Strategy and the questions these pose for the RTP update will be provided.	Robin McArthur, Metro Rian Windsheimer, ODOT Alan Lehto, TriMet
1:30	Part 1: Small Group Discussions Workshop participants will work in small groups to discuss specific mobility issues at the sub-regional level, helping to frame short-term, medium-term and long-term mobility investment strategies, current challenges and future mobility needs.	Metropolitan Group Staff (facilitators)
3:05	BREAK
3:15	Part 2: Large Group Discussion Participants will report back on small group discussions, and provide recommendations for defining an overall regional framework for defining and evaluating short-term, medium-term and long-term mobility investment strategies for the RTP.	John Rehm, Metropolitan Group (facilitator)
3:50	Wrap-up and Next Steps Metro will summarize the workshop recommendations and describe how the outcome from the workshop will be reported back to MPAC and JPACT and used by local agency coordinating committees to define complementary community building investments as part of the RTP Solicitation Process.	Robin McArthur, Metro
