RESOLUTION NO. 80-127

Introduced by
Mike Burton, Chairman

WHEREAS, Several employees of the Washington Park Zoo worked long hours in an effort to save the trees and protect the animals during the recent ice and snow storm; and

WHEREAS, Their efforts were rewarded by unusually little damage to the Zoo grounds and trees, and successful protection of the animals; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED,

That the Council express its appreciation to those Zoo employees whose outstanding efforts have resulted in preservation of the scenic qualities of the Zoo and protection of the animals during the January, 1980, snow and ice storm.

ADOPTED by the Council of the Metropolitan Service District this 24th day of January, 1980.
