Dear Mayor Johnson and Members of the City Council:

Please be advised that effective immediately, I am resigning my position as a member of the City Planning Commission.

I have been asked to serve as a member of the Metro

Charter Commission and as a part of the appointment process,

"I must certify that... " I am not an elected or appointed officer of a city, county or district as defined in ORS 198.010." After much thought, the course of action as stated above seems to be the only option.

The wellbeing of my city, however, continues to be very important to me. If I may be of any help, please let me know.

Cordially,

Judy Carnahan
