III. Planning functions required by the charter.

- A. The charter will require the regional government to adopt a regional Future Vision. (2/27,p.14)
1. Definition of the Future Vision. (2/27,p.17)
    - a. The Future Vision is a conceptual statement that indicates population levels and settlement patterns that the region and adjacent areas can accommodate within the carrying capacity of the land, water and air resources, and that achieves a desired quality of life.
    - b. The Future Vision is a long-term, at least 50-year, visionary outlook.
  2. Matters addressed by the Future Vision will include, but are not limited to: (2/27,p.19)
    - a. The use, restoration and preservation of regional land and natural resources for the benefit of present and future generations.
    - b. How and where to accommodate the population growth for the region while sustaining and maintaining its livability and quality of life.
    - c. Means of developing new communities and additions to the existing urban area in well-planned ways.
    - d. Economic growth and educational resources. (3/5,p.11)
  3. Development, adoption and review of the Future Vision. (3/5,p.18)
    - a. The governing body will appoint a broad-gauged commission to serve without compensation. The commission will consider available data and public input and seek any additional information necessary to develop the proposed Future Vision within a timetable established by the governing body.

- (1) The commission members shall represent private, public and academic sectors.
  - (2) One or more commission members must reside outside the boundaries of the regional government.
- b. The governing body will adopt a Future Vision within 18 months after adoption of the charter.
4. The Future Vision may be reviewed and amended at such times and in such manner as the regional governing body shall determine and shall be completely reviewed and revised in the manner of its original development and adoption not less frequently than once every 15 years. (3/5,p.18)
5. Legal effect; reviewability. (3/5,p.18)
  - a. The Future Vision is not a regulatory document.
  - b. The Future Vision is not reviewable by LUBA or judicially, and is not subject to LCDC acknowledgement or review.
  - c. The Future Vision affects the Regional Framework Plan in the manner described below.
- B. The charter will call for a Regional Framework Plan. (2/27,P.22)
  1. Preamble of the Regional Framework Plan. (2/27,p.23)

There shall be a Regional Framework Plan adopted by the regional governing body. The existing local plans of the cities and counties within the region shall be modified over time by those cities and counties in order to be consistent with the Regional Framework Plan.
  2. Definition of the Regional Framework Plan. (2/27,p.23)
    - a. The Regional Framework Plan establishes and is limited to plans and policies for the matters addressed in 3 and 4 below, and provides the basis for coordination of local city and county plans.
    - b. The Regional Framework Plan must be consistent with Oregon's Statewide Planning Goals and describe its relationship to the Future Vision.
    - c. The Regional Framework Plan will include regional goals and objectives, functional plans and benchmarks for performance as implementation tools.
  3. Matters addressed in the Regional Framework Plan. (3/5,p.23)
    - a. Regional transportation and mass transit systems.
    - b. Urban growth boundary.
      - (1) Management.

  - c. Protection of lands outside the urban growth boundary for natural resource, future urban or other use.
  - d. Federal and state mandated planning functions.
  - e. The following matters to the extent determined through the process described below:
    - (1) The governing body, with the advice and consultation of the RPAC, will determine the aspects of the matters in (2) below that are of metropolitan concern and that will benefit from regional planning. The determination will include prioritizing matters as necessary in relation to available funding and recognition of completed and ongoing planning activities. The determination will describe the respective planning roles of regional and local governments and management of the planning process with respect to various elements of each matter.
    - (2) Matters addressed. (3/5,p.26)
      - (a) Water sources and storage.
      - (b) Housing densities.
      - (c) Greenspaces.
      - (d) Siting of significant land use developments.
      - (e) Solid waste disposal, reuse and recycling.
      - (f) Siting and operation of public exposition, recreation, cultural and convention facilities.
      - (g) Regional disasters. (3/5,p.28)
    - (3) The Regional Framework Plan may address other matters, determined in the process described in II.F. (3/12,p.1)
- 4. Procedures for development, adoption and review of the Regional Framework Plan. (3/12,p.2)
  - a. The Regional Framework Plan will be adopted within 42 months after installation of the governing body.
  - b. The governing body, with the advice and consultation of the RPAC, will adopt the Regional Framework Plan.
  - c. Periodic LCDC review of the Regional Framework Plan for Statewide Goal compliance will occur on a schedule established by LCDC.

- d. The Regional Framework Plan may be amended on a schedule to be determined by the regional governing body.

C. City and county (local) plans. (3/12,p.2)

1. The charter will address city and county plans as part of the Regional Framework Plan. (3/12,p.2)
2. The charter will provide that all existing regional planning documents remain in effect following charter adoption and must be reviewed and updated within a specified amount of time. (3/12,p.3)
3. Local plans must be made consistent with the Regional Framework Plan by the next periodic review, or within three years after adoption of the Regional Framework Plan, whichever is longer. Prior to a determination of consistency by the governing body of the regional government, a local government shall make findings in connection with each land use action demonstrating that the action is consistent with the Regional Framework Plan. (3/12,p.4)
  - a. The issue of consistency with the Regional Framework Plan is appealable as provided by law. (3/12,p.5)
  - b. Upon delegation by LCDC, the regional government is expressly authorized to prepare and submit an acknowledgement report, with respect to local plans, directly to LCDC, in lieu of a report to DLCD. (3/12,p.7)
  - c. The regional government will have authority to review local government land use decisions, to determine if decisions are being made that are inconsistent with the Regional Framework Plan, and to require changes to local government standards and procedures, if necessary to reverse a pattern or practice of inconsistent decisions. (This authority is not in limitation of implicit authority to contest individual decisions allegedly inconsistent with the Regional Framework Plan.) (3/12,p.9)
  - d. The regional government will develop recommended model standards and procedures for local land use decision making that may be adopted by local governments. (3/12,p.13)

IV. Operational and service delivery powers and responsibilities.

- A. The regional government is authorized to deliver solid and liquid waste functions as provided in Oregon laws. (3/12,p.16)
