/ (All)

Discussion Continued from July on ODOT Enhance 1:50 p.m.

Scott Turnoy (ODOT)

The Oregon Transportation Commission (OTC) approved funds for the / (All)

Enhance Highway Discretionary Program, to address congestion and freight mobility, also factoring in safety, equity, climate change and multimodal accessibility to pick the best projects. By the end of August, Region 1 will submit ODOT Project Manager proposals and in fall, OTC will decide which to move forward with further scoping. Scoped projects will then be considered in a final decision process before going into ODOT's 2024-2027 Statewide Transportation Improvement Program (STIP). What are the projects or scope elements that TransPort recommends ODOT pursue for smart, cost-effective investments that yield policy benefits?

2021 TSMO Strategy - Actions 2:10 p.m.

Caleb Winter (Metro)

(Fehr&Peers) / (All)

/ Chris Grgich

A strategy is composed of a series of actions to achieve desired outcomes. As we near this final step, what actions do you foresee as critical? This will be an informal brainstorming to make sure the Project Management Team and Fehr&Peers has your thoughts in front. The team will give a brief update on the status of this planning project before discussion.

2:30 p.m. Adjourn Kate Freitag (ODOT)
