

Mike Burton
Metro Councilor, District 12

Mike, who was selected chairman of the first Metro Council, is no stranger to regional issues and problems, having served on the Board of Directors of CRAG and the Mid-Willamette Valley Council of Governments representing the state of Oregon.

He has extensive knowledge in administration and management of government operations, educational programs, public relations and personnel programs. He has served as a project consultant to the State Community Services Program; has been Administrator of the State Intergovernmental Relations Division; was an assistant professor at the University of Portland; was Director of Information for the Air Force Institute of Technology; and was director of a combat news center in Thailand.

Mike currently is Dean of the Management School at Marylhurst College. A graduate of Oregon State University, he also holds graduate degrees in education from the University of Portland and has done post-graduate work at Boston University. While in the Air Force, Mike also received specialized education in such areas as management and policy implementation, and teaching techniques and methods.

He was recently appointed to the Governor's Bi-State Task Force on the Northern Interstate (I-5) Corridor and was selected Co-chair for that group.

Active in community matters, Mike is past chairman of the Portland Committee for Citizen Involvement and past president of the North Portland Citizens Committee. He and his wife, Jan, have one daughter and live in north Portland.
