BEFORE THE METRO COUNCIL STAFF

FOR THE PURPOSE OF DECLARING) THE METRO COUNCIL STAFF) OUTSTANDING AND EXEMPLARY!)

RESOLUTION NO. 1994
Introduced by Sandi Hansen,
Councilor, Dist. 12

WHEREAS, Cheri Arthur's cheery voice almost made me forget she called at 8AM; and

WHEREAS, Judy Shioishi was able to buffer me from more upset citizens; and

WHEREAS, Lindsey Ray always remembered the truly important council business, such as parking reimbursement and airline tickets and food; and

WHEREAS, Marilyn Geary-Symons let nothing bother her serenity, she just typed reeeally fast when she was angry and she had the patience to teach me to make the 'good' coffee -- three times; and

WHEREAS, Susan Lee made me look efficient and organized and was somehow able to read my notes and did all this while raising a son and attending college; and

WHEREAS, Paulette Allen hustled around at the speed of light, finding obscure minutes from meetings held by Moses, and she also reminded us that we didn't have it nearly as bad as Di and Charles; and

WHEREAS, Lisa Creel somehow managed to work cheerfully and lovingly with thirteen born leaders who all knew what was in the public's best interest; and

WHEREAS, Gail Ryder could schedule more on one sheet of paper than anyone thought possible; and

WHEREAS, John Houser learned more about solid waste than any human should have to know and is eager to teach it all to Jon Kvistad, next year; and

WHEREAS, Casey Short taught me to spell cemetery and managed never to laugh at me when I sounded real dumb and he didn't think it was too odd that I left messages on his voice mail in the middle of the night; and

WHEREAS, Don Carlson is the spirit of Metro Past as well as Metro Present and knows more about Metro than any living human (he says) and who talks about Metro budget in his sleep (Darlene says); now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, I declare the Metro Council Staff to be the greatest Metro Council Staff that ever worked its hallowed little cubicles. May the exemplary heights of humor, warmth, and character exhibited by this staff, be the standard to which all other council staffs are held.

SO SAYETH SANDI HANSEN, COUNCILOR FROM THE DEFUNCT DISTRICT 12.
