CLASSIFICATION DESCRIPTION

Jobs assigned to this classification function as policy advisors and support to Metro councilors and the agency, on government affairs and policy development, and lead key agency efforts to support and promote the success of Metro Council and the agency's goals, or specific initiatives of the COO/Deputy COO or other departments. The focus is to promote and strengthen Metro's relationships and partnerships with federal, state, local government and non-governmental partners. Policy advisors use political, professional, and organizational expertise and acumen to identify and promote policy and coordination outcomes that will advance Metro's Council's mission and vision within the region. *This is a new classification encompassing the Policy Analyst and Policy Advisor.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

This series classification has four levels: Policy Advisor I, Policy Advisor II, and Policy Advisor III and Policy Advisor IV. Increasing levels of assignment complexity, difficulty and accountability characterize the different levels in this series.

The Policy Advisor I is assigned administrative and coordinating duties supporting the Metro Council, Council Office, and Government Affairs and Policy Development (GAPD).

The Policy Advisor II is assigned responsibilities requiring independence of action and past work experience in the area of specialization. Assistance with policy formulation and evaluation, responsibility for coordination of a specialty area and/or lead responsibility for lower level professionals and supervision of support positions are typical assignments. This level supports Metro councilors, and may hold positions in GAPD or the Council Office.

The Policy Advisor III has expert knowledge in their specialized or technical area of responsibility. This level advances Metro's policy goals through collaboration with local government and regional partners on projects and programs. This level may represent Metro to outside entities and commit the agency to courses of action in response to decisions made by the Council or the Chief Operating Officer.

The Policy Advisor IV has the highest level of accountability for political strategy and execution. This level of the series works with Council and at all levels of the agency to develop and support Council initiatives and major funding proposals, including ballot measures. This level represents Metro to outside entities and commits the agency to courses of action. Supervision of other professionals may or may not be part of the Policy Advisor IV's duties.
